THIRD PARTY TESTING is required to support a certification of compliance to the rules shown below for children's products that are manufactured after the effective dates listed with each rule. The laboratories in this list have been accepted as accredited to test products to one or more of these children's product safety rules, as identified in the accreditation scope for each laboratory. A manufacturer of a children's product that must comply with one or more of these rules must support its certification of compliance with test results from one of these laboratories. -CHECK THE: List of Accredited Testing Laboratories

OFFICE OF UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVENOTICES

2015/2016 Generalized System of Preferences Annual Product Review [\[TEXT\]](#) [\[PDF\]](#)*

- Inviting Public Comments on Possible Actions Related to Competitive Need Limitations

*The United States Trade Representative (USTR) has announced the availability of the full 2015 calendar year import statistics relating to competitive need limitations¹ (CNLs) under the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) program. Accordingly, the Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR) will accept public comments submitted by April 1, 2016, regarding: (1) Possible de minimis CNL waivers; and (2) possible redesignations of articles currently not eligible for GSP benefits because they previously exceeded the CNL thresholds.

*In addition, the USTR also announces the withdrawal by the petitioners of certain previously accepted CNL waiver petitions. [see ITC GSP Investigation Notice – page 4]

Written comments submitted in response to this notice must be submitted electronically by 5:00 p.m., Friday, April 1, 2016. All submissions must be made in English and submitted electronically via <http://www.regulations.gov>, using docket number USTR–2015–0013. Hand delivered submissions will not be accepted.

2015 Import Statistics

In order to provide notice of articles that have exceeded the CNLs for 2015 and to afford an opportunity for comment regarding (1) potential de minimis waivers and (2) potential redesignations for 2015, USTR has posted product lists on the USTR Web site at <https://ustr.gov/issue-areas/preference-programs/generalizedsystem-preferences-gsp/current-reviews/gsp-20152016> under the title ‘‘2015 Import Statistics Relating to Competitive

Need Limitations for the Generalized System of Preferences.’’ These lists can also be found at www.regulations.gov in Docket Number USTR–2015–0013.

There were no articles that were subject to CNL waiver revocation for 2015 based on the provisions of Section 503(d)(4)(B)(ii) of the 1974 Act, as amended by Public Law 109–432. Full 2015 calendar year data for individual tariff subheadings may also be viewed on the Web site of the U.S. International Trade Commission at <http://dataweb.usitc.gov>.

¹ “Competitive need limits” represent the maximum import level of a product that is eligible for duty-free treatment under the GSP; once the limit is reached, trade is considered “competitive,” benefits are no longer needed, and imports of the article become ineligible for GSP treatment, unless a waiver is granted.
